

EASTERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY
FACULTY DEVELOPMENT AND INNOVATION CENTER
FACULTY PARTNERSHIP GRANTS
GUIDELINES and APPLICATION (2021-2022)

Faculty Partnership Grants are designed to help EIU faculty develop projects partnering with faculty or staff within the university, in the community, or with faculty in other institutions of higher education. Proposals must form or further partnerships with faculty in different departments and/or colleges at EIU, with faculty at other institutions, with university staff, or with members of the community. Grants ($1,000) may be used as seed money in conjunction with other support. Successful grant applicants are required to provide a summary report with evidence of the event or project, an outline of project outcomes, and final budget detail at the end of the fiscal year (June 30, 2022) Recipients will also be asked to prepare a workshop for the FDIC based on the partnership project.

Successful proposals will target one or more of the following goals:

- Foster collegiality by creating opportunities through which faculty can explore a topic of mutual interest from different perspectives
- Develop creative/innovative interdisciplinary or integrative pedagogies
- Strengthen cross-disciplinary and inter-departmental collaborations in scholarship or teaching and learning
- Promote the integration or incorporation of diverse intellectual, social, and/or cultural perspectives into curricula
- Develop integrative models of teaching and learning or the assessment of integrative teaching approaches.

Successful co-authored proposals will demonstrate:

- A connection to larger institutional initiatives including integrative learning, retention, and assessment
- Demonstrate collaboration between faculty members across disciplines and/ or the wider community
- Demonstrate the scholarly and/or pedagogical merit of proposed activities
- Make provision for the inclusion of students

Examples of eligible applications include but are not limited to:

- Direction/organization of panels and conferences, including student mini-conferences and colloquia
- Guest speakers
- Team-taught seminars or courses
- Direction/organization of student field trips for research
- Textbook writing support
- Service-learning projects
- Plenary events that serve several classes

Note: Preference is given to first-time applications (for new or ongoing projects). Little or no monies will be awarded for food. Awards are subject to usual budget constraints; and any monies awarded for Faculty Partnership Grants must be spent or encumbered by the end of the current fiscal year (June 30, 2022) according to University policy.
