

Sponsored by the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences

Schedule of Events

Friday, April 24, 2020

11:00am The Festival Opens (All day events)

- Art Vendors – Concourse
 - Artisan Booths open and begin selling their unique one-of-a-kind products!
- Food Concessions – Doudna Circle Outdoors
 - Food Vendors open up and begin serving some of the best festival food central Illinois has to offer!
- Community Painting Project – Dvorak Concert Hall Entryway
 - Join the Landscape of Guitar artists in this one-of-a-kind art project, celebrating nature and our love of the arts!

1:00pm – 1:45pm

- Percussion Ensemble – Concourse Bridge
 - Our very own students perform for you under the direction of Jamie Ryan.

7:30pm

- Fool For Love – Black Box Theatre
 - Our Theatre Department presents the Sam Shepard play that focuses on two former lovers that meet again in a desert motel. (Intended for adult audiences)

Saturday, April 25, 2020

9:00am The Festival Opens

- Art Vendors – Concourse
 - Artisan Booths open and begin selling their unique one-of-a-kind products!

10:00am

- Littlest Dancer – Recital Hall
 - The Dance Life Center presents a performance featuring their pre-ballet students.

11:00am

- Food Concessions – Doudna Circle Outdoors
 - Food vendors open up and begin serving some of the best festival food central Illinois has to offer!

12:00pm

- Japanese Tea Ceremony – Lecture Hall
 - Join us for a traditional Japanese tea ceremony. Chado, or the Way of Tea, is one of the most ancient and revered arts of Japan.

1:00pm

- Missoula Children's Theatre: The Emperor's New Clothes – Dvorak Concert Hall
 - Our local K-12 students put on a production after a week of auditions and rehearsals under the direction of the nation's largest touring children's theatre troupe!

3:00pm

- Landscape of Guitar – Recital Hall
 - Join our artists who painted and designed the mural in the Concourse for a concert that includes visual art and beautiful harmonies.

5:00pm

- Missoula Children's Theatre: The Emperor's New Clothes – Dvorak Concert Hall
 - Our local K-12 students put on a production after a week of auditions and rehearsals under the direction of the nation's largest touring children's theatre troupe!

7:00pm

- HOPE: You Got Talent! – Theatre

- Watch contestants compete for a $1,000.00 grand prize in the HOPE of East Central Illinois community fundraiser.

7:30pm

- Fool For Love – Black Box Theatre
 - Our Theatre Department presents the Sam Shepard play that focuses on two former lovers that meet again in a desert motel. (Intended for adult audiences)

Sunday, April 26, 2020

11:00am The Festival Opens (All day events)

- Art Vendors – Concourse
 - Artisan Booths open and begin selling their unique one-of-a-kind products!
- Food Concessions – Doudna Circle Outside
 - Food vendors open up and begin serving some of the best festival food central Illinois has to offer!

2:00pm

- Fool For Love – Black Box Theatre
 - Our Theatre Department presents the Sam Shepard play that focuses on two former lovers that meet again in a desert motel. (Intended for adult audiences)
- University Gospel Choir
 - Join our University Gospel Choir for a morning of music and reverence.