

CHARLES C. SHAW SCHOLARSHIP

Established in 1992, the Charles C. Shaw Scholarship was created to award a graduating senior of good character and academic standing from Paxton-Buckley-Loda High School or Mattoon High school who will be attending Eastern Illinois University. Should a student from Paxton High School not be available and meet criteria, the scholarship should be awarded to a student of good academic standing and character from Mattoon High School. First priority shall be given to an athlete who will be attending Eastern Illinois University. Should an athlete not be available to receive the award, then the award shall be granted to a Physical Education major (Kinesiology and Sport Studies) attending Eastern Illinois University. Should an athlete or Physical Education major not be available, the award shall be granted to a student studying science at Eastern Illinois University. The award shall be announced each spring and issued the following fall semester to the recipient's EIU student account to first be applied against costs (tuition, fees, housing, etc.). Any remaining amount will be disbursed to the recipient.

The deadline for this scholarship is March 1, 2017.
