DEPENDENCY OVERRIDE RENEWAL

You have completed your FAFSA but provided no parental information. You have had a dependency override approved by EIU in a prior award year relating to your relationship with your parents making it difficult/impossible to provide their information on your FAFSA application. For consideration for the current year, we need this form completed and signed. Additional documentation may be requested upon review, but is not required for submission.

__________My situation has not changed from the previous year that my dependency status was changed from Dependent to Independent by EIU.
