Tugs

Rules and Regulations

ALL ROSTERS, LIABILITY FORMS, SPORTSMAN LIKE CONDUCT FORMS AND CHAPTER CONDUCT CODES
ARE DUE NO LATER THAN MARCH 27, 2024

1. All forms mentioned above must be turned into the Office of Leadership and Engagement, or handed in at one of the steering committee meetings. There are NO exceptions or excuses that will be accepted after the due date. If you miss this deadline, your chapters WILL NOT participate in the event(s).
2. Committee Chairs will not be held responsible for names that cannot be read. If your roster is ineligible, we will count that as not having the forms completed.
3. During Tugs, there will be an area separating the tugs lane from the spectators. If any member of your chapter is in that lane at any time during Tugs, the team will be considered in violation of the conduct code, and will be disqualified.
4. If a team chooses to drop out of participation in a competition, they will forfeit their seed position. Their team will not place or earn participations points in said event.
5. The event will be held over the campus pond.
6. The rope will be entirely wet before the contest begins.
7. The start and end of a tug will be indicated by a train horn or other amplified sound if train horn doesn't work.
8. Only turf or plastic shoes are allowed. No metal cleats may be worn.
9. Judges will check participants' shoes prior to each tug (on the rope).
10. Substitutions of tuggers may be made before the tug, but must be from the alternate listed on the final roster.
11. The team that is able to get two tuggers (second tugger knee deep) on the opposing team in the water first will be declared the winner.
12. One false start will be allowed per team, per tug.
13. No team member may assume a position behind the anchorman at any time. No one but tugging members may touch the rope after the tug has begun to hold the slack. If necessary, a steering committee member will hold the slack.
14. The team coach may not touch the members once the tug has begun.
15. No more than two team coaches will be allowed in the lane, failure to adhere to this rule will result in immediate disqualification. Warnings will not be given.

Eastern Illinois University Fraternity & Sorority Life Greek Week Packet - 2024

16. Coaches must be a current EIU student and an active member of an Eastern Fraternity/Sorority organization.
17. A flagger is required for each team to utilize for the raising and lowering of the flag. The flagger must be a member of the chapter tugging, can be an alternate, and not the Coach. This person must be silent and clear-headed during the competition and cannot move from the flag position.
18. Only the contestants' feet may touch the ground, unless the participant(s) slip or fall in that event, a judge will issue a verbal warning and the contestant will have 5 Mississippi's by the judge's count to resume their position. If five Mississippi's are exceeded, and the tugger has not resumed to their position on the rope, then the individual will be disqualified.
19. NO SITTING ON FEET WILL BE ALLOWED. If caught sitting for more than 5 Mississippi's count by a judge, the individual will be disqualified.
20. Teams must stay in the tug lanes, or the team will be disqualified.
21. Any attachment to a stable object (i.e. fence pole, tree, boulder, light pole with concrete block, a vehicle, etc.) will result in immediate disqualification, without warning during Round 1, Round 2, Semi-Finals, and Championship tugs. This includes Tugs practices.
22. Other immediate disqualifications will result if:
 - a. Intentional forward motion during the explosive stage.
 - b. Intentional releasing of the rope.
 - c. Intentional interference with the judges occurs (by any member of the chapter)
23. The rope will be entirely placed in the pond immediately after the prior tug. The team will be given a two-minute time limit to dry the rope. Following, the team will then have one minute to approach the rope. The team will then have a maximum of two minutes to get set. When the horn sounds the tug will begin and then the horn sounds for the second time when the tug has ended.
24. There will be a two-minute time limit from "Tuggers get set" to "Your team's flag is down." If that time limit is broken, it will be considered a false start.
25. If a team refuses/declines to tug at any point, they forfeit their position and will not receive participation points for the event.
26. If three or more of the tuggers have been removed from the rope by judges or have voluntarily removed themselves from the rope the tug will be called due to the safety of the tuggers and the opposing team will have won that tug.
27. If the Anchor has been removed from the rope by the judges or have voluntarily removed or untied themselves from the rope the tug will be called due to the safety of the tuggers and the opposing team will have won that tug.

2024 Airband Waiver

Eastern Illinois University Liability Release, Waiver, Discharge and Covenant Not to Sue

This is a legally binding release made by me, _____ (Please Print)(Hereinafter referred to as “Releaser”) to Eastern Illinois University (Hereinafter referred to as “Institution”).

I fully recognize that there are dangers and risks to which I may be exposed by participation in the Greek Week Airband. The following is a description and examples of specific, significant, non-obvious dangers and risks associated with this activity: travel to and from the conference, conference participation and recreation/social activities. I understand the Institution does not require me to participate in this activity, but I want to do so, despite the possible dangers and risks and despite this Release.

I, therefore agree to assume and take on myself all of these risks and responsibilities in any way associated with this activity. In consideration of and return for the services, facilities, and other assistance provided to me by the Institution in this activity, I release the Institution (and this governing board, employees, and agents) from any and all liability, claims, and actions that may arise from injury or harm me, from my death, or from damage to my property in connection with this activity. I understand this Release covers liability, claims and actions caused entirely or in part by any acts or failures to act of the Institution (or its governing board, employees, or agents), including but not limited to negligence, mistake or failure to supervise the Institution.

I recognize that this Release means I am giving up, among other things, rights to sue the Institution, its governing board, employees, and agents for injuries, damages, or losses I may incur. I also understand the release binds my heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, as well as me.

I have read this entire release, I fully understand it, and agree to be legally bound by it.

This is a release of your rights. READ CAREFULLY BEFORE SIGNING!!

Appendix C – Greek Week Chapter Conduct Code

Chapter Conduct Code

I, _____ as the acting President of the _____ chapter, agree to be held responsible for the behavior of my entire Chapter. The Chapter understands the rules regarding all Greek Week sponsored events and games. We understand appropriate behavior is expected from all members whether they are participating members of the event or a member of the audience, or within the Charleston community. We also agree to treat all committee members, staff, judges and other Greek Week participants in the manner we would like to be treated. Furthermore, the Chapter understands that violation of this code by any member can result in sportsmanship point deductions or disqualification of the entire team or Chapter at any event. Greek Week staff also possess the power to disqualify any Chapter from participating in Greek Week events entirely upon any behavior deemed extremely unsportsmanlike.

Appendix D – Tugs Sportsman-Like Conduct Code

Everyone must sign this before they will be allowed to participate in any event! If anyone from a team does not sign this code, the entire team will be disqualified.

As a member of the _____ chapter, I agree to uphold the standards of Eastern Illinois University, Panhellenic Council, Interfraternity Council, and National Pan-Hellenic Council regarding sportsmanlike conduct. This code includes appropriate treatment of judges, steering committee members, staff and other Greek Week participants. I have also have read and understand the rules that apply to the event in which I am participating. If I should choose not to adhere to this code, my actions will be reviewed by the Greek Week Committee and my Chapter President. The final decision will rest with the Greek Week Committee. In addition, I agree my behavior should at all times represent the Greek Community in a positive manner. Failure to adhere this code could result in disqualification of my entire team and possibly my chapter.

Appendix E – Waiver for Men Tugs

Eastern Illinois University Liability Release, Waiver, Discharge and Covenant Not to Sue

This is a legally binding release made by me, _____ (Please Print)

(Hereinafter referred to as “Releaser”) to Eastern Illinois University (Hereinafter referred to as “Institution”).

I fully recognize that there are dangers and risks to which I may be exposed by participating in the Greek Week Men’s Tugs. The following is a description and examples of specific, significant, non-obvious dangers and risks associated with this activity: travel to and from the conference, conference participation and recreation/social activities. I understand the Institution does not require me to participate in this activity, but I want to do so, despite the possible dangers and risks and despite this Release.

I, therefore agree to assume and take on myself all of these risks and responsibilities in any way associated with this activity. In consideration of and return for the services, facilities and other assistance provided to me by the Institution in this activity, I release the Institution (and its governing board, employees, and agents) from any and all liability, claims and actions that may arise from injury or harm me, from my death, or from damage to my property in connection with this activity. I understand this release covers liability, claims and actions caused entirely or in part by any acts or failures to act of the Institution (or its governing board, employees, or agents), including but not limited to negligence, mistake or failure to supervise the Institution.

I recognize that this Release mean I am giving up, among other things, rights to sue the Institution, its governing board, employees, and agents for injuries, damages, or losses I may incur. I also understand this release binds my heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, as well as me. I have read this entire release, I fully understand it, and agree to be legally bound by it. This is a release of your rights.
