

EMPLOYEE RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES UNDER THE FAMILY AND MEDICAL LEAVE ACT

EMPLOYEE ENTITLEMENT

An eligible employee may take up to twelve weeks (26 weeks to care for a covered servicemember with a serious injury or illness under (e) below) of Family and Medical Leave during each 12-month period for which eligibility criteria have been met. The initial 12-month period is measured back from the date the employee first takes FMLA leave. Family and Medical Leave shall be granted for (a) the birth or placement of a child for adoption or foster care; (b) for the care of an immediate family member (child, spouse, or parent) with a serious health condition; (c) when an employee is unable to perform the functions of his or her position due to a serious health condition; (d) because of a qualifying exigency arising out of the fact that a family member (child, spouse, or parent) is a member of the Reserves or the regular Armed Forces and is deployed to a foreign country on covered active duty; or (e) for the care of an immediate family member (child, spouse, parent, or next of kin) who is a covered service-member with a serious injury or illness. For leave taken for the birth or placement of a child for adoption or foster care, entitlement expires at the end of the twelve-month period following the date of the birth or adoption placement.

EMPLOYEE ELIGIBILITY

To be eligible for FMLA benefits, an Eastern Illinois University employee must:

- (1) have worked for Eastern Illinois University for at least twelve months;
and
- (2) have worked at least 1,000 hours of service during the previous twelve months.

SERIOUS HEALTH CONDITION

Serious health condition means an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that involves:

- any period of incapacity or treatment connected with inpatient care (i.e., an overnight stay) in a hospital, hospice, or residential medical facility;
- any period of incapacity requiring absence of more than three full consecutive calendar days from work, school, or other regular daily activities that also involves continuing treatment (or under the supervision of) a health care provider;
- any continuing treatment by (or under the supervision of) a health care provider for a chronic or long-term health condition that is incurable or so serious that, if not treated, would likely result in a period of incapacity of more than three calendar days;
- prenatal care; or
- an injury or illness incurred by a covered service-member: (a) in the line of duty on covered active duty in the Armed Forces (or existed before the beginning of the member's active duty and was aggravated by service in the line of duty on active duty in the Armed Forces); and (b) that may render the service-member medically unfit to perform the duties of the service-member's office, grade, rank, or rating. In the case of a veteran, this injury or illness could have "manifested itself before or after the member became a veteran".

MEDICAL CERTIFICATION

Certification issued by the employee's or the family member's health care provider is required to support a request for Family and Medical Leave due to a serious health condition (see Medical Certification forms). Requests for paid leaves shall be in accordance with the University's sick leave/vacation policies. Departments may require employees to provide the opinion of a second health care provider designated or approved by the University, but not employed by the University. The opinion of a third provider may be required when there are differing opinions. The opinion of the third provider shall be considered final and shall be binding on the University and employee. Any expenses associated with obtaining second and third opinions shall be the responsibility of the employing department.

CERTIFICATION OF QUALIFYING EXIGENCY FOR MILITARY FAMILY LEAVE

Certification issued by the employee is required for an employee seeking FMLA leave due to a qualifying exigency. A complete and sufficient certification to support a request for FMLA leave due to a qualifying exigency includes written documentation confirming a covered military member's covered active duty or call to covered active duty status.

RETURN FROM FAMILY AND MEDICAL LEAVE

The University requires an employee to obtain a statement from a health care provider that he/she is able to resume work. Employee is expected to contact supervisor as soon as possible to coordinate anticipated date of return. A staff employee who has been absent for Family and Medical Leave shall be restored to the position of employment held by the employee when the leave commenced; or an equivalent position with equivalent employment benefits, pay, and other terms and conditions of employment.

USE OF PAID AND UNPAID LEAVE

Birth or Placement of a Child for Adoption or Foster Care: The University will apply accumulated paid leave benefits concurrently with FMLA leave. For the birth or placement of a child for adoption or foster care, the university will apply sick leave or accrued leave, at the employee's discretion. Any portion of the FMLA period for which sick leave or accrued leave is not applied shall be without pay.

Serious Health Condition, Family Member or Employee: The University will apply accumulated paid leave benefits concurrently with FMLA leave. For care of a spouse, child, or parent with a serious health condition or because of an employee's own serious health condition, the leave is provided under the University Sick Leave and the campus Academic sick leave policies. If an employee's sick leave is exhausted, the university will apply vacation leave to ensure continuance in pay status during the FMLA period. Any portion of the FMLA period that extends past the exhaustion of compensable leave benefits will be without pay.

In addition, employees with a serious health condition, who exhaust their accrued sick leave balances, may be eligible to receive disability benefits through SURS. Employees may request an APPLICATION FOR DISABILITY BENEFITS from the campus Benefits office when their leave is anticipated to be greater than 60 days. Any portion of the FMLA period for which accrued vacation, sick leave, or disability benefits are not applied shall be without pay.

INSURANCE COVERAGE AND RETIREMENT CONTRIBUTIONS DURING UNPAID LEAVE

Coverage of group health and dental insurance shall be continued by the University at the same level that coverage would have been provided if the employee had remained in continuous employment. Employees are responsible for paying the employee-paid portion of any insurance premiums presently paid by payroll deduction. If the employee does not make required payments during the leave period, the CMS-Group Insurance Division (GID) will terminate the member's coverage the first day of the current month. These members are ineligible to continue coverage under COBRA and will not receive a COBRA notification letter (eligible or ineligible). CMS will take action to collect all outstanding premium(s), which may include involuntary withholding. Employees are encouraged to contact the Benefits Service Center for information on changes in status and to arrange for billing prior to their last day of work.

Employees pay the entire premium plus a 2% administrative fee for COBRA coverage. Central Management Services (CMS) mails monthly billing statements to the employee's home address on or about the tenth of each month. Bills for the current month are due by the twenty-fifth of that month and are paid to CMS. Individuals electing COBRA coverage have 45 days from the date coverage is elected to pay currently due premiums. Failure to submit payment by the due date terminates COBRA rights.

The University may recover any premiums paid for maintaining coverage for the employee if the employee fails to return from Family and Medical Leave for a reason other than continuation, recurrence, onset of a serious health condition (employee or family), or other circumstances beyond the control of the employee. Certification of such conditions may be required by the University.

To determine the effect of Family and Medical Leave on the accumulation of service time for retirement and to assure continuation of contributions, the employee should contact SURS at 1-800-ASK-SURS (1-800-275-7877).

Eastern Illinois University

FAMILY AND MEDICAL LEAVE FORM

Effective August 5, 1993, Eastern Illinois University implemented the Family and Medical Leave Policy in compliance with the federal Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) of 1993 and amended the policy in 2009 due to regulation revisions effective January 16, 2009. Such leaves shall be granted to eligible employees (a) for the birth or adoption of a child; (b) for the care of a child, spouse, or parent who has a serious health condition; (c) when an employee is unable to perform the function of his or her position due to a serious health condition; (d) because of a qualifying exigency arising out of the fact that a family member (child, spouse, or parent) is on covered active duty or call to covered active duty status as a member of the Reserves or the regular Armed Forces; or (e) for the care of an immediate family member (child, spouse, parent, or next of kin) who is a covered service-member with a serious injury or illness. FMLA leaves are granted by the Human Resource Department. Eligible employees are entitled to up to twelve workweeks (26 weeks to care for a covered service-member with a serious injury or illness) of unpaid family and medical leave during each consecutive twelve-month period for which eligibility criteria have been met. The University will apply accumulated paid leave benefits concurrently with FMLA leave, in accordance with the University Sick Leave and the campus Academic sick leave policies. If an employee's sick leave is exhausted, the university will apply vacation leave to ensure continuance in pay status during the FMLA period. Any portion of the FMLA period that extends past the exhaustion of compensable leave benefits will be without pay.

If foreseeable, requests for Family and Medical Leave should be made at least thirty days in advance of the leave or as soon as practicable. If the need for leave is not foreseeable, requests should be made within two business days of learning of the need for leave.
