

I am interested in this role because I would like to contribute to the international student community in EIU in a consistent and reliable way. I will take this opportunity to work to the best of my ability to make EIU a better place for international students. In doing so, I hope to learn to accept and respect people's differences and experiences, and use diversity as the greatest resource that it is.