

I Onyekachi Okoh is interested in one of the chosen positions because I am hardworking, organized, professional, I have the ability to think outside the box, I have great communication skills, time management skills, I am patient, compassionate and able to work under pressure, I applied for these positions to be chosen for one because the positions chosen have the ability to help my growth, help my motivation and determination, I have an understanding of what it takes to reach the target audience, content creation crisis, communication, Event communication and marketing. If I am selected for one of the roles. I promise to do my best to serve the office right.