

Mr Lord.

If Miss Gair's guilt is proven, I ask her removal from the committee. I also ask that she be reprimanded in chapel. For such a hardened sinner as she showed herself yesterday needs a severe lesson.
And she is young enough for it to be worth trying to brake her of her untruthful habit.

Yours Resply

Mrs G. P. Carnes