President L.C.Lord,

Charleston, Illinois.

Dear Mr. Lord:- I do not wish to wait until your death to see some of your practical lectures in print.

This thought was suggested to me at the time of our last visit to Charleston in connection with my interest in your chapel talk upon the subject of sacrifice.

In case you plan at any time to publish a small or large volume of these practical and forceful talks, please put me down as an advance subscriber . That's all.

Yours very truly,

W. W. Earnest
