A MESSAGE FROM DR. DAVID GLASSMAN

PRESIDENT, EASTERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY

Welcome young musicians and other guests to Eastern Illinois University!

We are always pleased to have this opportunity to host the Panther Marching Band Festival on our campus, and look forward to seeing – and hearing – your excellent performances. They are obviously the result of hundreds of hours of dedicated practice, and we thank you for your willingness to come the distance and share your work with us.

While you are here, I invite you to take the opportunity to view our Doudna Fine Arts Center – truly a work of art. Our students in art, theatre arts and music (majors and non-majors alike!) are learning, rehearsing and performing in this state-of-the-art facility. Of course, Doudna is open to all students, as well as individuals throughout east-central Illinois, who wish to attend quality concerts, musicals, exhibitions, lectures, recitals and other types of musical and theatrical performances.

Eastern is an incredible institution of approximately 8,600 students, with more than 65 majors and numerous minors and pre-professional programs. There are more than 175 recognized state organizations and clubs representing the academic, social, service, cultural, athletic, religious and special interests of our students.

Many of you are at that stage in your life when you're thinking about life after high school. Eastern Illinois University would love to be your first-choice university. With outstanding faculty and a vibrant and friendly campus, it's a university on the go! Come back for a visit anytime and let's talk about how EIU can help make your career dreams come true.

A MESSAGE FROM DAVID G. BOGGS

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF BANDS AND DIRECTOR OF ATHLETIC BANDS

Welcome to the 45th Annual Eastern Illinois University Panther Marching Band Festival! We are incredibly excited to be able to host the PMB Festival again this year! I have had the pleasure of attending this festival as a participating high school director, as a spectator, as an adjudicator and now, as the festival host. One element has remained constant regardless of the role I was in. EIU has always been, and continues to be, an outstanding educational institution with a fantastic music program and one of the most hospitable universities I have ever visited! I hope that you will observe the same dedication to education and music and experience the same hospitality I have encountered every time I have stepped foot on this campus!

We look forward to celebrating the accomplishments of our talented and hard-working band students today as their efforts culminate in fantastic marching band performances! Many, many hours of hard work and dedication have gone into the preparation of these shows and we are happy that our high school bands are here on the EIU campus today to demonstrate their skills.

We hope you enjoy EIU hospitality and experience being a part of the Panther Family! Thanks for taking the time out of your busy schedules to support our young artists and their endeavors in the marching arts! Have a great Panther Day!

EASTERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY

Situated on 320 acres, EIU was founded in 1895 and originated as a teachers college, which speaks to our strong commitment and passion to the field of education. If you talk to students, alumni, faculty, and staff of Eastern Illinois University, before long you'll start to notice a common theme: family. When you attend Eastern, you're doing more than just going to classes. You become part of a family that supports each other, in good times and bad. Panther Pride doesn't just have to do with athletics or wearing a blue shirt, it has to do with supporting each other – academically, personally, spiritually and sometimes even financially. Our impact can be local or global, but there is no doubt we have reason to be proud of being in this family that has produced some of the most impressive thinkers, workers, and leaders the state of Illinois has ever seen.

EASTERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY MUSIC DEPARTMENT

We have a thriving department with outstanding faculty, facilities, and most importantly, students! All music students work closely with a dedicated faculty of highly-skilled professional musicians and educators who are committed to providing the utmost in personal attention for every student. As a result, we have an outstanding record for job placements, and our graduates are respected leaders in all fields of music.

The Department of Music enrolls approximately 150 undergraduate and graduate students and is an accredited member of the National Association of Schools of Music. All undergraduate programs share a common set of core courses, which include applied study on your primary instrument or voice, ensembles, music theory, music history, and piano. From here each program branches out to provide specialization in an area of interest. All music majors take weekly hour-long lessons on their primary instrument or voice with a music faculty member, and all students participate in ensembles every semester, many play in more than one. Students frequently collaborate with one another in and out of the classroom, developing a spirit of cooperation and a shared love of music.

EASTERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY BANDS

The EIU Bands have been serving the University and its students since 1927 through a variety of ensemble experiences including 3 concert bands—Wind Symphony, Concert Band, Symphonic Band—Basketball Pep Band, and the Panther Marching Band as well as 2 jazz big bands and 3 jazz combos. Students of all majors are welcome and encouraged to participate in the various EIU bands. If you like to play a woodwind, brass, or percussion instrument, we have a place for you in one of the bands at EIU!

HOW ARE BANDS CLASSIFIED AT THE PMB FESTIVAL?

Classification is based on a hybrid system which varies from year to year depending on the natural breaks that occur when band and school enrollments are listed smallest to largest. IHSA Music Classifications are used to divide ensembles into five different classifications (D, C, B, A, AA). Ensembles are then divided by the natural breaks in band size. The IHSA classification and band size is then averaged together in a .83:1 ratio (because of five IHSA classes and six band classifications) and then classifications are formed. All classifications are within 1 point spread or less therefore ensuring the fairest possible mathematical average between both IHSA classification and band size classification.

HOW ARE BANDS SCORED?

Overall scoring for the Panther Marching Band Festival is 60% music and 40% visual. Each Performance and General Effect Adjudicator will factor in 20% of the overall scoring total. Drumline and Color Guard Adjudicator's scores are not counted in the scoring of the bands for class awards as they are already factored into the music and general effect scores. Each band receives taped comments from all the adjudicators focusing on what areas are going well and what areas to continue to try to improve and how to make those improvements. Music education is the cornerstone of the PMB Festival's philosophy.

WHAT AWARDS ARE OFFERED AT THE PMB FESTIVAL?

The following awards will be given in each Competitive Class: Class Ranking Trophy for the top three band in each class, Best Music (highest combined music performance score), Best Visual (highest visual performance score), Best General Effect (highest combined musical and visual effect score), Best Percussion and Best Auxiliary awards. There will also be Best Soloist and Grand Champion awards presented at both the Small (1A/2A/3A) and Large (4A/5A/6A) competitions.

BANDS

A MARCHING BAND COMPETITION IS VERY DIFFERENT FROM A SPORTING EVENT OR CONCERT.

There are different rules that we ask our audience to abide by, to help each band and audience member get the best experience possible. We have provided a small list of Do's and Don'ts that will help ensure the enjoyment of all and will help the competition run as smooth as possible.

- + Do get to the show early to get a good seat. Sit as high and centered in the bleachers as possible, so you can get the full effect.
- + Don't save a large number of seats for fans that are coming later. Seating is "First-Come-First-Served".
- + Do wear your school colors proudly!
- + Don't talk during ANY band's performance!
- + Do share and converse with those around you (even those from other schools) between bands.
- + Don't move around during a band's performance. Wait until a performance has concluded, and the band is marching off the field to leave the stands.
- + Do find the positives in each band's performance, and applaud their efforts.
- + Don't make negative comments while within ear-shot of other audience members. You never know who is sitting around you—it could be staff members, parents, or siblings of the performers on the field. If you must point out flaws, wait until the drive home!
- + Do applaud often. If the music moves you to show appreciation, show it! The performers will feed off that energy, and will, in turn, give a better performance!
- + Don't comment negatively on anyone's placement. Every band has worked hard and put in countless hours preparing for the performance you just experienced.
- + Do enjoy the wonderful time and experiences you will have today.

REMEMBER

The adjudicators are professionals who are doing their best to judge a very subjective activity.

WE REMAIN ALL IN FOR EIU STUDENTS.

We believe all of our students can reach heights they never realized were possible given the right circumstances. If that sounds good to you, let a prospective Panther know about EIU today.

We are ranked fourth in the United States for Best Value College & University in 2022.

At EIU 99% of our classes are taught by faculty, not teaching assistants like at bigger universities.

We have the highest graduation rate among all Illinois public universities in our class.

Within 6 months of graduation, 91% of EIU students got jobs in professional positions or accepted into graduate programs.

Our alumni satisfaction rate is 98% after 1 year and 99% after 9 years.

We're a Division I school, so our students are challenged if they're on the team and entertained if they're in the bleachers.

Our average class size is 14. Alumni list this as one reason for their satisfaction with EIU.

Our students come from all over. Our student body represents over 44 states & 54 countries.

Our students save $900 a year using EIU Textbook Rental instead of buying textbooks each semester.

PARTICIPATION IN MARCHING BAND HELPS STUDENTS BECOME SO MUCH MORE THAN BETTER MUSICIANS.

Using data and scales from the National Survey of Student Engagement (NSSE), Dr. David Healy from Boston College compared the college engagement of members of 20 different college marching bands with data from the same colleges from non-marching band members. Comparing data from marching band members and non-marching band members, he found the following:

- + College Marching Band students are more likely than non-band students to work with faculty members on activities other than coursework including committees, orientation, and student life activities.
- + College Marching Band students are more likely than their non-band peers to participate in a community-based project (e.g. service learning) as part of a course.
- + College Marching Band students are more likely than their non-band peers to have serious conversations with students of a different race or ethnicity as well as students who are very different in terms of their religious beliefs, political opinions, or personal values
- + College Marching Band students are also more likely than their non-band peers to examine the strengths and weaknesses of their own views on a topic or issue, try to better understand someone else's views by imagining how an issue looks from his or her perspective, and learn something that changed the way they understand an issue or concept.

UNIVERSITY BANDS

EIU WIND SYMPHONY

The Wind Symphony is the “flagship” ensemble of the band program at Eastern, consisting of approximately 50 of our finest brass, woodwind and percussion performers by audition. This ensemble performs significant literature for winds that is drawn from the major masterworks of the repertoire for the modern wind band, including chamber literature. The Wind Symphony is also actively involved in the commissioning of new works for wind band as well as exploring new approaches to programming/performing.

EIU CONCERT BAND

The Concert Band is a non-auditioned ensemble of approximately 70 musicians, both music majors and non-majors, dedicated to broadening the artistic level and interest of its members while performing the music of artistic and historical significance. The ensemble performs 2-3 concerts in both the fall and spring semesters.

EASTERN SYMPHONIC BAND

The Eastern Symphonic Band consists of approximately 50-60 woodwind, brass, and percussion players. This ensemble only meets one night per week, so the time commitment is minimal. Made up of mostly non-music majors, a few community members, and some music education majors playing secondary instruments, this group provides a wonderful performance outlet for non-music majors with a minimal time commitment.

EASTERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY PANTHER BASKETBALL BAND

Comprised of both music majors and non-majors, supports the Panther Basketball teams through spirited and quality entertainment. There is no audition to participate. Rehearsals begin in October for this ensemble and performance responsibilities continue through the first half of spring semester.

EASTERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY PANTHER MARCHING BAND

The Panther Marching Band is the most visible of all the bands at Eastern. It meets in the fall semester and is open to all students. This exciting musical showcase traditionally performs for all home football games, one away game, high schools, contests, and pep rallies. Members of the PMB enjoy a unique sense of recognition and respect on campus. Participation is open to all wind and percussion instrumentalists and standard auxiliary units, including drum majors and guard. The style of the band is unique to college bands in that it is a blend of contemporary and traditional music arrangements and drill design. The PMB utilizes a multiple show concept including a traditional pre-game show as well as two to three different half-time shows throughout the season.

For more information on any of the bands, please visit eiu.edu/music or call the University Bands Office at (217) 581-2312.
