

MBA 5010, Accounting from a Management Perspective

Course description: Effective uses of accounting information in managerial decision-making. Applications include tasks both internal (managerial) and external (financial) to the organization.

Prerequisites: Admission to the MBA degree or other graduate degree program.

Learning Objectives:

1. Analyze the principles that govern financial and managerial accounting.
2. Evaluate external and internal financial statements and reports.
3. Examine the information needs and uses of accounting data by internal and external stakeholders.
4. Use accounting data to make effective managerial decisions.