

27th Annual Phi Beta Kappa Lecture

THE ZONG SLAVE-SHIP MASSACRE:

A New Discovery in the British Library

Tuesday, 11/14, 5 PM @ Doudna FAC Lecture Hall

Dr. Michelle Faubert

(Associate Professor of English, Film, and Theatre at the University of Manitoba) shares her real-life story of discovering an important letter on the Zong slave-ship massacre, during which 133 slaves were thrown overboard to their deaths—and all to collect insurance.

Sponsored by the Phi Beta Kappa Association of East Central Illinois and the Jack and Margaret Redden Fund, co-sponsored by the College of Arts and Humanities, and the Center for the Humanities
