CIVIC & NON-PROFIT LEADERSHIP OPTION

A new Option for the PLS Major, effective Fall 2015: A large number of Political Science majors enter careers in government management, interest groups, and non-profits. The Bureau of Labor Statistics predicts a 21 percent job growth in community/social management, as well as a 20% job growth in political science careers, mostly centered on consulting, organizational careers, and state/local government. This option replaces the Public Administration Concentration and offers opportunities for students seeking careers in a broad range of fields, including local nonprofit management, state and local government agencies, civic leadership, interest groups, and international Non-Governmental Organizations.
