

EIU Position Description

POSITION: Instructor, Political Science

DEPARTMENT: Political Science

APPLICATION DEADLINE:

APPLY TO: <https://apply.interfolio.com/49450>

Applicants are invited for a non-tenure track position in the Department of Political Science at Eastern Illinois University with a beginning date of August 18, 2018. The department seeks a full-time faculty member in Public Administration and Public Policy. Primary teaching responsibilities include the online graduate level courses in public policy research and analysis; applied research methods in public administration and public policy; government and nonprofit budgeting; and state governments and policy, as well as on-campus undergraduate courses in public policy or American politics.

Candidates must have a completed Ph.D. in Political Science, or have ABD status with evidence of substantial progress toward completion of the degree. Demonstrated commitment to diversity and experience with promoting inclusive excellence is required.

A complete application will include a written letter of application, curriculum vitae, academic transcripts (official copy required for appointment), and three letters of recommendation submitted via Interfolio at <https://apply.interfolio.com/49450>.

Inquiries about the position may be directed to Dr. Richard Wandling, Department Chair, at rawandling@eiu.edu or 217-581-2523. Review of applications will begin April 9, 2018.

Eastern Illinois University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer - minority/female/disability/veteran - committed to achieving a diverse community.
