

POLITICAL SCIENCE GRADUATE COURSE ROTATION, 2017-2018

FALL 2017

RESEARCH METHODS

PLS 5001-070/Introduction to Political Science
PLS 5001-600/Introduction to Political Science/online
PLS 5053/Research Methods/online

POLITICAL SCIENCE

PLS 4903/Classical Political Theory
PLS 5373/American Politics/online
PLS 5433/Comparative Politics

PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION/PUBLIC POLICY

PLS 4873/Human Resource Management/online
PLS 5843/Public Policy Analysis/online

SPRING 2018 (SUBJECT TO CHANGE)

POLITICAL SCIENCE

PLS 4763/Environmental Politics & Policy
PLS 4853/The Supreme Court/online
PLS 4923/African American Political Thought
PLS 5023/International Politics
PLS 5073/Political Behavior/online
PLS 5533/Political Modernization

PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION/PUBLIC POLICY

PLS 4793/Civic & Nonprofit Leadership/online
PLS 4893/Budgeting/online
PLS 5543/Public Administration/online

SUMMER 2018 (SUBJECT TO CHANGE)

POLITICAL SCIENCE

PLS 4823/International Policy Issues/online
PLS 5153/Cities & Urban Policy/online
PLS 5173/Congress & the Presidency/online

PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION/PUBLIC POLICY

PLS 4793/Civic & Nonprofit Leadership/online
PLS 4823/International Policy Issues/online
PLS 5153/Cities & Urban Policy/online

ADDITIONAL CLASSES & COMMENTS

CLASSES AVAILABLE EVERY SEMESTER (CONSULT WITH GRADUATE COORDINATOR ABOUT ENROLLING)

PLS 5940/Capstone Project
PLS 5950/Thesis
PLS 5980/Internship
PLS 5990/Independent Study

COMMENTS

- Students are limited to 9 credits of coursework at the 4750-4799-level.
- International students are limited to one online course during each fall and spring semester. No limits apply in the summer term.
- Students may take one course from outside the Political Science department as an elective, with graduate coordinator approval, and with approval from the faculty member teaching the course. Examples include Geographic Information Systems, Governance in Sports (KSS), Governance & Finance in Higher Education (CSD), College Teaching (CSD), Professional Writing (ENG), and selected courses in History, Economics, Aging Studies, Family & Consumer Sciences, Health Promotion & Leadership, and Communication Studies.