

Kinesiology & Sports Studies/Recreation Administration Student Ambassadors

Who are the KSS/Rec Admin Student Ambassadors?

Student Ambassadors are undergraduate students who represent the Kinesiology & Sports Studies and Recreation Administration departments. Ambassadors serve as knowledgeable representatives of the department at various on and off-campus initiatives. Under the guidance of their respective departments, ambassadors provide outreach to prospective students, parents, alumni, and friends.

What we are looking for.

- Enthusiastic students who are outgoing and friendly
- Students with excellent communication skills
- Professional and dedicated team players who are willing to share their appreciation of both EIU and their college experiences

What Ambassadors do.

- Meet with prospective students and their families
- Participate and assist in recruitment events both on and off campus
- Conduct tours for visitors and attend meetings as necessary

Qualifications.

- Possess and maintain a cumulative 3.5 GPA
- One completed academic year at EIU

Expectations.

- Commit to the program for at least one academic year
- Participate in multiple on and off-campus recruitment efforts
- Promptly reply to email requests from Department Chair

Benefits of participation

- Development of leadership skills
- Enhanced communication skills
- Volunteer and leadership experience for resumé
- Professional connections with alumni and faculty
- Contribute to the growth and stability of EIU by sharing your passion with others

Applications

Applications are available on the KSS and Rec Admin websites and in the Kinesiology & Sports Studies office (2506 Lantz Arena).
