

Fall 2023 Cohort

EARLY CHILDHOOD COHORT SURVEY

Are you interested in earning your degree in Early Childhood Education? Do you live in Southeastern Illinois? Are you already working as a daycare teacher, a paraprofessional, or working with young people in a non-traditional way? If so, we may have a fantastic opportunity for you!

Eastern Illinois University is working with school districts to identify daycare teachers, paraprofessionals, community leaders, and other non-traditional candidates that are interested in becoming teachers in southeast Illinois. We are going to start an online cohort in Early Childhood Education in the Fall of 2023.

Requirements

- Candidates must have an Associate of Applied Sciences (AAS) in Early Childhood Education.
- The program is completely online and will consist of 60 hours with some supports.

Financial Aid

There is a scholarship offered through Illinois Student Assistance Commission (ISAC) that covers the cost of attendance.

Format

Completely online program.

If you have any questions, please contact Dr. Brian Reid at EIU (bdreid2@eiu.edu or Julie Viertel (jvierTEL@eiu.edu)

If you are interested, please complete the Early Childhood Survey below.

Survey

