EASTERN SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

The Eastern Symphony Orchestra (ESO) is Eastern Illinois University's campus-wide orchestra with membership from throughout the university and community. The orchestra rehearses weekly and performs four concerts a year featuring a diverse selection of repertoire drawn from standard orchestral literature. The ESO also features winners of the annual Concerto/Aria Competition in performance. The ESO serves as just one of the Department of Music's many ensembles open to non-music majors to continue to perform and cultivate their devotion to music.

The Department of Music invites all university students to audition for ESO on all of the standard orchestral instruments. Auditions are held during the first week of classes in the fall semester.

Eastern Symphony Orchestra is a one credit hour course and all performers enroll in MUS 0211R.001. Most degree programs will accept orchestra credit as a free elective.

Please visit our website for concert highlighted and for rehearsal days and times.
