Report from Board Chair

Vice Chair Goetz informed the Board and the audience that two trustees were not in the room at the meeting but for very different reasons. Trustee Dively was injured a few weeks ago in an accident. Vice Chair Goetz, on behalf of the Board of Trustees, wished him the best of luck for a speedy recovery. Trustee Gilchrist, a renown illustrator is being honored this week, and, on behalf of the Board, Vice Chair Goetz offered congratulations on those accolades.

Committee Reports

Executive/Planning Committee

Mr. Goetz presented the report. Mr. Mito, Dr. Glassman, Mr. Caulkins, and Ms. Negron attended the Trustee Training Conference in Chicago on October 27 and reported on the various sessions. Dr. Glassman presented an update from Springfield and from the Marketing and Branding Initiative for external assistance.
Board Relations Committee – No report.

Finance/Audit Committee
Ms. Leigh Moon reported that a Quality Assurance Review is performed on a regular basis. The work has been completed, and the report has been submitted to the State, but the University has not received the final results. Mr. McCann discussed the status of the FY 2017 preliminary budget.

Board Regulations – No report.

Academic and Student Affairs Committee
Mr. Hutchinson reported that the Academic and Student Affairs Committee reviewed and discussed several items. A graduate program in cybersecurity and an undergraduate program in computer technology, both within the School of Technology, have been approved. The Committee also discussed degree programs in health communications and criminal justice. Three items from the Board agenda were discussed: a proposed revision to the Board Regulations to allow the President to negotiate an adjustment to tuition and fees with international institutions, a proposed graduation fee increase of $15, and a proposed fee increase for students taking courses through the School of Continuing Education. Ms. Michaela Crabtree, a Kinesiology and Sports Studies student, was named EIU’s Lincoln Laureate Award recipient with the Lincoln Academy of Illinois. Additional awards mentioned included recognition of EIU on President Obama’s Higher Education Honor Roll for Community Service for the last five years, EIU was named a LEAD Institution by NASPA for the last three years, and EIU has received a Military Friendly School designation for the last five years by Victory Media.

Information Items

President’s Report

Dr. Glassman gave an update of the Vitalization Project. The Vitalization Project consists of nine Workgroups, a President’s Liaison Subcommittee, and the vice presidents. All members of the task force are working diligently. Workgroups 1-7 submitted preliminary recommendations on November 1; final recommendations are due to the President on December 15th. When preliminary recommendations were submitted, the recommendations were sent to the vice presidents and then to the affected areas through the deans/directors for review and response. The responses then went back to the Workgroups for review and preparation of the final recommendations. With the submission of the final recommendations to the President, Workgroups 1-7 will be finished with their work. Workgroups 8 and 9 will work into the Spring. The process is running smoothly.

Alumni Association Report

Mr. Terry Prillaman, President of the Alumni Association, provided a report. Nineteen board members govern the Alumni Association and manage over $2 million in assets. The Association assists with alumni events, receptions and other events as needed. The Association identifies opportunities where help can be administered in recruiting undergraduate students. During homecoming weekend, the Alumni Association honored ten alumni, and, during the past year, the Association awarded several scholarships, including the Livingston C. Lord Scholarship, which has been awarded since the 1930s. Mr. Prillaman noted that the Alumni Association provides funding to numerous departments on campus.

Earned Degrees Report

In FY 2016, 2,376 degrees were awarded, a slight decrease from the previous year. Kinesiology and Sports Studies was the largest undergraduate major, and Technology was the largest Master’s Degree program. In FY 2016, minorities received 439 degrees, or 18% of the total degrees conferred. Eastern’s 6-year graduation rate (IPEDS/NCAA methodology) is 57%.
Reports from Constituencies

Faculty Senate – Dr. Jemmie Robertson communicated the Resolution from the Faculty Senate on November 15, 2016. Additionally, Dr. Robertson made two comments which did not get into the Resolution: 1) The Faculty Senate Executive Committee commends Dr. Glassman for his willingness to address in detail concerns raised by faculty, and 2) The Faculty Senate Executive Committee commends Dr. Glassman and all members of the workgroups, including staff and students who have volunteered their time and energy alongside faculty, for their efforts on behalf of the University.

Staff Senate – No report

Student Government – Ms. Witt reported that more than 350 students registered to vote. Recent activities planned by Student Government included Carving Pumpkins with the Prez. The Student VP for Student Affairs is trying to determine what can be done to help the Recognized Student Organizations (RSOs) on campus.
