Awareness Ribbons

You can pass these out at any event to raise awareness for a cause.

In order to make 200 ribbons, you will need:

- 200 safety pins—$3.92
- 33 yards of ribbon—6 yards of Offray for 97¢
- At least one pair of scissors—$1.00
- At least one ruler—46¢

All supplies can be bought at Wal-Mart for a total of about $15.00

Instructions:

1. Cut 6-inch strips of ribbon
2. Make a single loop from the ribbon
3. Insert safety pin through the center of the ribbon where the two ends cross

Ta-Da! Awareness ribbons!

Different colored ribbons have different significances:

Black: Suicide, POW-MIA, Melanoma, Anti-Gang
Blue: Child Abuse Prevention, Colon Cancer, Domestic Violence, Drunk Driving
Gold: Childhood Cancer
Orange: Leukemia, Lupus, Hunger Awareness
Pink: Breast Cancer, Birth Parents
Purple: Alzheimer’s disease, Animal Abuse, Cancer Survivor, Pancreatic Cancer
Domestic Violence, Crohn’s Disease
Red: DUI, Heart Disease, HIV/AIDS, MADD/DARE, Substance Abuse
Teal: Ovarian Cancer, Sexual Abuse
White: Adoption, Bone Cancer, Bone Disease
Yellow: Adoptive Parents, Deployed Soldiers, Missing Persons
Black and White: Anti-Racism
Beaded Key Chain: Gecko

Examples of Donations Sites include: Big Brother Big Sisters, Teen Reach

In order to make 30 key chains, you will need:
  1,500 various colors of pony beads—500 beads per bag for $1.97
  30 lanyard hooks—Assorted Findings for $3.97
  60 yards of craft lace—200 ft for $4.97

All supplies can be bought at Wal-Mart for a total of about $15.00

Instructions
  1. To make one gecko, start with 50 various colors of beads, 2 yards of cord, and 1 lanyard hook
  2. Tie the satin cord to the lanyard hook so equal amounts of cord are left hanging on either side
  3. Start by putting 1 bead on one side of the cord, then take the other side of the cord and feed it through the opposite side of the bead

![Image of a gecko made from beads]

The first line will look something like this and you will continue this way through the rest of the gecko

4. Use the pattern to place eyes in the proper place

![Image of a gecko with eyes and legs]

5. The legs are the tricky part! String 1 side of the string through 2 beads of 1 color, then through 3 beads of a different color. Then string it back through the 2 beads of the other color

![Image showing the second line of the gecko with added legs]
6. Do this step on each side of the gecko and continue with the body as before. The lower legs are the same process
7. To make the tail, repeat the same process as the body using 1 bead instead of multiple beads
8. Tie off the end of the tail with a double knot

Voila! You have a pony bead gecko that will make someone really happy to receive.
Beaded Key Chain: Monkey

Examples of Donations Sites include: Big Brother Big Sisters, Teen Reach

In order to make 30 key chains you will need:
- 2490 pony beads—500 beads per bag for $1.97
  - Suggested colors= 1,830 brown pony beads
  - 540 tan pony beads
  - 120 black pony beads
- 30 lanyard hooks—Assorted Findings for $3.97
- 60 yards of craft lace—200 ft for $4.97

All supplies can be bought at Wal-Mart for about $19.00

Instructions:

1. For 1 monkey you will need 61 brown beads, 18 tan beads, 4 black beads, 2 yards of cord and 1 lanyard hook.
2. Tie the satin cord to the lanyard hook so equal amounts of cord are left hanging on either side
3. Start by putting 4 beads on one side of the cord, then take the other side of the cord and feed it through the opposite sides of the beads

The first line of the monkey will look something like this, and you will continue this way through the rest of the monkey

4. Follow the pattern below to place the differently colored beads
5. The arms and legs are fairly simple, all you have to do is string 6 brown beads on one side of the cord, then add a black bead on the end. After that feed the cord back through the 6 brown beads and continue with the pattern. The legs are the same process.

6. The tail is made just like the rest of the body, only using 1 bead per row instead of multiple.

Ta Da! You have a fully formed monkey to give to someone.
Beaded Key Chain: Puppy

Examples of Donations Sites include: Big Brother Big Sisters, Teen Reach

In order to make 30 key chains, you will need:
1. 1560 pony beads—500 beads per bag for $1.97
   Suggested colors=330 black pony beads
   120 white pony beads
   60 blue pony beads
   1,050 brown pony beads
2. 30 lanyard hooks—Assorted Findings for $3.97
3. 60 yards of craft lace—200 ft for $4.97

All supplies can be bought at Wal-Mart for about $17.00

Instructions:
1. For 1 puppy, you will need 11 black beads, 4 white beads, 2 blue beads, 35 brown beads, 1 lanyard hook, and 2 yards of satin cord.
2. Tie the satin cord to the lanyard hook so equal amounts of cord are left hanging on either side
3. Start by putting 4 beads on one side of the cord, then take the other side of the cord and feed it through the opposite sides of the beads

The first line of the monkey will look something like this, and you will continue this way through the rest of the puppy

4. The ears are very simple to make. String 4 brown beads on one side of the cord, then take the loose end and skipping the bead on the end, thread it through 3 brown beads.
5. Continue on the with body pattern. The tail will be threaded in the same way as the ears.

And there you have it! A cute little puppy to be someone’s new best friend
Bird Seed Cones

Examples of Donations Sites include: Douglas Hart Nature Center

In order to make 30 bird feeders, you will need:

- 30 pinecones—get off the ground
- 2 jars of smooth peanut butter—Algood for $2.28
- 1 bag of birdseed (7 lbs.)—$8
- 30 feet of yarn—Peaches and Crème for $1.77
- Scissors—Westcott 3 pack for $3.44
- Craft sticks—Jumbo 75 for $2.47
- Baggies—Great Value 50 pack for $2.48

Birdseed can be bought at Rural King for $8.00, Pinecones can be found wherever there are pine trees and all other supplies can be bought at Wal-Mart for around $12.00

Instructions:

1. To make 1 bird feeder, you will need 1 pinecone, 4 tablespoons of peanut butter, a bowl of birdseed, some yarn and a pair of scissors

   This project can get messy, so you may want to work outside

2. Tie the yarn around the pinecone close to the top, leaving both ends loose so the feeder can be tied to a tree

3. Use the wood craft stick to smother the entire pine cone in peanut butter

4. Spread bird seed on the ground, or put in a large bowl, then roll the pine cone in bird seed

5. Place finished bird feeder in plastic baggies

Congratulations, you are going to make some birds very happy this season!

Message Sayings
1. There are many things in life that will catch your eye, but only a few that will catch your heart. Pursue them.
2. Happiness resides not in possessions or in gold; the feeling of happiness dwells in the soul.
3. Few things in the world are more powerful than a positive push. A smile. A word of optimism and hope. And you can do it when things are tough.
4. And the day came when the risk to remain tight in a bud was more painful than the risk it took to blossom.
5. Our greatest glory is never in falling, but in rising every time we fall.
6. Thinking of you!
7. Have a great day!

“No act of kindness, no matter how small, is ever wasted.”
