

school where I teach
made the remark today that "Mr. Ford is worth a thousand of such men as the evangelist". When he said this he only
expressed the opinion
of all who know
Mr. Ford.

Hoping that this
note has conveyed
my feelings,

I remain as always
your respectful pupil
Marquette W. Simms

Alton - 3-10-'09

My dear Mr. Ford:-

Having read of the excitement at Charleston over the dancing and knowing a little about you I want to let you know that an old
pupil is very much in sympathy. Of course it will all come out
all-right as the right
is sure to come out in the end.

Mr. McCrae, who is the principal of Lincoln