Notice of Privacy Practices

Our Legal Duty

We are required by applicable federal and state law to maintain the privacy of your medical information. We are also required to give you this notice about our privacy practices, our legal duties, and your rights concerning your medical information. We must follow the privacy practices that are described in this notice while it is in effect. This notice took effect August 1, 2019 and will remain in effect unless we replace it.

We reserve the right to change our privacy practices and the terms of this notice at any time, provided such changes are permitted by applicable law. We reserve the right to make changes in our privacy practices and the new terms of our notice effective for all medical information that we maintain, including medical information we created or received before we made the changes. Before we make a significant change in our privacy practices, we will change this notice and send the new notice to our health plan subscribers at the time of the change.

You may request a copy of our notice at any time. For more information about our privacy practices, or for additional copies of this notice, please contact us using the information at the end of this notice.

Uses and Disclosures of Medical Information

Payment: We may use and disclose your medical information, without your permission, to pay claims from physicians, hospitals, and other health care providers for services delivered to you that are covered by your health plan, to determine your eligibility for benefits, to coordinate your benefits with other payers, to determine the medical necessity of care delivered to you, to obtain premiums for your health coverage, to issue explanations of benefits to you, and the like. We may disclose your medical information to a health care provider or another health plan to obtain payment or engage in other payment activities.

We may disclose your medical information to another health plan or to a health care provider subject to federal privacy protection laws, as long as the plan or provider has or had a relationship with you and the medical information is for that plan's or provider's health care quality assessment and improvement activities, competence and qualification evaluation and review activities, or fraud and abuse detection and prevention.

For Business Associates: In order to provide quality care, this organization requires business services such as information technology and claims management. These services will have use of your health information as it pertains to their service delivery. Also, these business associates must follow our standards for protecting your health information and sign a business associate agreement. In addition, the business associates must follow the HIPAA Security Rule as specified in the Health Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health Act (HITECH)/Energy and Commerce Recovery and Reinvestment Act, Subtitle D, Section 4401.

Your Authorization: You may give us written authorization to use your medical information or to disclose it to anyone for any purpose. If you give an authorization, you may revoke it in writing at any time. Your revocation will not affect any use or disclosure permitted by your authorization while it was in effect. Unless you give us a written authorization, we will not use or disclose your medical information for any purpose other than those described in this notice.

Family, Friends, and Others Involved in Your Care and Payment of Care: We may disclose your medical information to a family member, friend or any other person you involve in your health care or payment for your health care. We will disclose only the medical information that is relevant to the person's involvement. We may use or disclose your name, location, and general condition to notify, or to locate and notify, a person responsible for your health care in appropriate situations, such as a medical emergency or during disaster relief efforts.

Before we make such a disclosure, we will provide you with an opportunity to object. If you are not present or are incapacitated or it is an emergency or disaster relief situation, we will use our professional judgment to determine whether disclosing your medical information is in your best interest under the circumstances.

Individual Rights

Access: You have the right to examine and to receive a copy of your medical information, with limited exceptions. You must make a written request to obtain access to your medical information. You should submit your request to the contact at the end of this notice. You may obtain a form from that contact to make your request.

We may charge you reasonable, cost-based fees for a copy of your medical information, for mailing the copy to you, and for preparing any summary or explanation of your medical information you request. Contact us using the information at the end of this notice for information about our fees.

Disclosure Accounting: You have the right to a list of instances in which we disclose your medical information for purpose other than treatment, payment, health care operations, as authorized by you, and for certain other activities for the six-years preceding your request.

You should submit your request to the contact at the end of this notice, a request form is available. . If you request an accounting more than once in a 12-month period, we may charge you a reasonable, cost-based fee for responding to your additional requests, fee schedules are available upon request.

Amendment: You have the right to request that we amend our information. Your request must be in writing, and it must explain why the information should be amended. You should submit your request to the contact at the end of this notice. You may obtain a form from that contact to make your request. We cannot amend information provided by medical providers.

We may deny your request only for certain reasons. If we deny your request, we will provide you a written explanation. If we accept your request, we will make your amendment part of your information and use reasonable efforts to inform others of the amendment who we know may have and rely on the unamended information to your detriment, as well as persons you want to receive the amendment.

Restrictions: You have the right to request that we restrict our use or disclosure of your medical information for treatment, payment, or health care operations, or with family, friends or others you identify. We are not required to agree to your request. If we do agree, we will abide by our agreement, except in a medical emergency or as required by law. You should submit your request to the contact at the end of this notice. You may obtain a form from that contact to make your request. Any agreement we may make to a request for restriction must be in writing signed by a person authorized to bind us to such an agreement.

Confidential Communication: You have the right to request that we communicate with you about your medical information in confidence by alternative means or to alternative locations that you specify. You must make your request in writing, and your request must represent that the information could endanger you if it is not communicated in confidence as you request. You should submit your request to the contact at the end of this notice. You may obtain a form from that contact to make your request.

We will accommodate your request if it is reasonable, specifies the alternative means or location for confidential communication, and continues to permit us to collect premiums and pay claims under your health plan, including issuance of explanations of benefits to you.
